CANTONMENTS REGULATION—BYE-LAWS

S.R.O. 183, dated 3rd June 1961.—The following bye-laws for regulating the construction of pavements and culverts within the limits of Babina Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Babina, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (28) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284, of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR REGULATING THE CONSTRUCTION OF PAVEMENTS AND CULVERTS WITHIN THE LIMITS OF BABINA CANTONMENT

1. Every person intending to erect or re-erect pavement or culverts in front of his house shall give notice in writing of his intention to the Executive Officer.

2. The pavement or culvert shall be constructed by the owner of the house at his own expense after obtaining the sanction of the Cantonment Board.

3. The pavement or culvert shall be so constructed as to comply strictly with rules, bye-laws and the directions of the Cantonment Board.

4. The pavement or culvert shall be used for ingress to and egress from the house and shall not be used for any other purpose.

5. The owner of the house shall at all times at his own expense maintain the pavement or culvert in a proper state of repair to the satisfaction of the Cantonment Board.

6. In case the pavement or culvert is allowed to be constructed on land not belonging to or not held on lease by the owner of the house, it shall after construction be handed over to the Board; the responsibility for its maintenance shall, however, continue to be that of the owner.

7. The pavement or culvert shall not be added to or altered except unless so directed by or with the prior sanction in writing of the Cantonment Board and the expense of such addition and alteration shall be borne by the owner of the house.

8. If the owner of the house makes any default in carrying out the work in relation to a pavement or culvert as directed by the Cantonment Board or neglects to maintain the same in a proper state of repair, the work may be carried out by the Cantonment Board and the expenses incurred in carrying out the work shall be recovered from the owner of the house as arrears of tax.

9. The pavement or culvert shall be removed by the owner of the house at his own cost, should the Cantonment Board require him so to do and in such an event the owner of the house shall not be entitled to claim any compensation whatsoever.

10. Where the land on which the pavement or culvert is to be constructed does not belong to the owner of the house, mere sanction of the Cantonment Board for such construction shall not be deemed to confer on the owner any claim or title whatsoever to such land.

11. A contravention of any of the provisions of the above bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to rupees one hundred and in the case of continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
